

Dr Beedeenan Hulman

Southern African Development Community

Qualification: B.Sc. Agriculture, University of Allahabad (India); M.Phil. Animal Production, University of Reading (UK)

Experience: Ministry of Agriculture, Mauritius

1. Livestock Extension Officer (1972/73) field extension work
2. Research and Development Officer (1973 to 1978), research and development work in livestock
3. Head of Animal Production (1979 to 1992), responsible for livestock research and development in Mauritius
4. Assistant Director, Livestock (1992 to 2003) of the Agricultural Research and Extension Unit, policy and strategies formulation for livestock sector development in Mauritius
5. Programme Coordinator (2002 to 2005) for an EU funded poverty alleviation project for the implementation of micro projects in the livestock sector for rural development.

International Experience:

1987: FAO Consultant for a livestock project in Liberia

1992/93: Federal Ministry of Agriculture, Nigeria: Consultant for a livestock development monitoring and evaluation project funded by the World Bank

2006 to date: Senior Programme officer, FANR Directorate of the SADC Secretariat, responsible for the coordination of regional livestock development programmes and projects in the SADC region.