

Mr Bruce Plotkin  Senior Technical Officer (Legal)  Department of International Health  Regulations Coordination, WHO	From 1998 to 2005, Bruce Plotkin was outside legal advisor to WHO on revision of the International Health Regulations (IHR), and part of the drafting team which prepared all (4) drafts of the revised IHR, including the final version adopted by the World Health Assembly in 2005. He participated in the intergovernmental negotiations on the IHR as part of the Office of the Legal Counsel, presided over the consultation of legal experts concerning the revision. He was also consultant to WHO on international trade law in connection with the Framework Convention on Tobacco Control. Since 2006, Bruce Plotkin is Sr Technical Officer (Legal) in the IHR Coordination Department. In that capacity he provides advice to HQ, Regional and Country Offices, to Member States, and speaks at international meetings on IHR-related issues (including on national legislation). He is supervising co-author of the WHO guidance materials on IHR (2005): Implementation in National Legislation. In the context of the Influenza Pandemic (H1N1) 2009, he and IHR colleagues have worked closely with WHO's Global Influenza Programme and many other technical groups involved in the global response.
---	---