

Ms Carmen Bullon

Legal Officer, Legal Office (LEGA) /FAO

Carmen Bullón Caro is a Legal Officer at the Development Law Service, Legal Office of FAO.

She is a trained European Union and International Law lawyer in Spain. Before joining FAO she worked on EU legislation and legal affairs at the regional administration in Spain and as international legal consultant on animal and biosecurity legislation in Chile in the framework of the Bilateral Agreement Chile-EU.

She joined the FAO's Legal Office in 2006, where she has worked on different areas pertaining to animal health and welfare, food safety and security and other areas of agricultural law. In this position she has assessed FAO member States for the reform of their livestock and animal health legislation in more than twenty countries in Central and South America, the Caribbean, Africa, Asia and Eastern Europe.

She has participated in different publications of the Legal Office and is an active member of the FAO working groups of Livestock Governance, Animal Welfare, Animal Feed and Dairy Products.