

Dr Sarah Kahn

Head International Trade Department, OIE

Dr Sarah Kahn has been working as Chief of the OIE International Trade Department since 2006. She has previously worked with FAO, and in the veterinary services in Australia, Canada, the United States and Great Britain. Dr Kahn holds a degree in Veterinary Medicine and postgraduate qualifications from universities in Australia. Dr Kahn has worked in meat hygiene, quarantine and international trade for twenty five years. She has negotiated several trade protocols and was the lead technical official for Australia in a World Trade Organization (WTO) dispute.