

Session 4: Public Sector Perspectives and Experiences

Chair: Prof Hassan Aidaros

Professor of Hygiene and Preventive Medicine

Actually:

FAO, Regional Manager of Avian Influenza, for Middle East.

FAO, Coordinator for the Regional Animal Health Center, for Middle East.

Member of the OIE Animal Welfare Working Group.

Member of the OIE Working Group on Animal production and food safety

Member of the Editorial board of the OIE Scientific and Technical Review.

Recognized by the OIE and World Bank as Official Auditor for evaluation of Veterinary Services (PVS)

Previous:

President of OIE, Middle East Commission

Chairman of the General Organization for Veterinary Services and Delegate of Egypt to the OIE

Chairman of the Board of Animal Insurance Fund in Egypt.

Chairman of the Board of Veterinary Services Program for privatization, Egypt.

President of the OIE Regional Commission for Middle East.

Deputy Dean, Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, Banha University.

Chairman of Hygiene and Preventive Medicine Department, Banha University.

Professor of Hygiene and Preventive Medicine, Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, Banha University, from 1989.

Lecturer Ph. D., UER de Medecine; St. Etienne University, Lyon, France

Ph.D. Animal Hygiene and Preventive Medicine, Joint supervision with St. Etienne University, Lyon, France

Master on Hygiene and Preventive Medicine Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, Zagazig University

B.SC of Veterinary Medicine & Surgery, Cairo University (1973)