

María Silvana Tirabassi

Dr Tirabasse has a Master's Degree in Tax Law from Barcelona University, Spain, a post-graduate diploma in International Taxation from the Madrid Institute of Fiscal Studies, and is the coordinator and lecturer of Post-graduate studies in the Special Customs Techniques Course at the Institute of Public Finance Studies of Argentina.

She currently Works as the General Director of Customs for the Republic of Argentina, is Vice-President of the Americas and Caribbean Region of the World Customs Organization (WCO), International Technical Advisor on drug trafficking to the World Customs Organization (WCO) and the United Nations' "Safe Containers" programme. She is also a Member of Technical Committee No. 2: responsible for Customs Affairs at MERCOSUR and Member of the Working Party on the Customs Code of the same organization.