

Mr Bernard Terrand (with Dr Anne van de Wiele)

French, Doctorate in Veterinary science, inspector in veterinary public health, national referent on the French national veterinary information system (SIGAL).

After a first experience of 3 years as project leader in an animal diseases epidemiology research center, to find risk factors about cattle diseases, and 13 years as deputy director in the sanitary breeder groupment of Pyrénées-Atlantiques (France) to fight against infectious animal diseases in cattle, I am actually working for 4 years in General Directorate for Food (Direction Générale de l'Alimentation, DGAL), in the French ministry of agriculture, on the national veterinary information system, to participate in the conception of national information system, and specially computerized exchanges with laboratories